GOD Save the KING!

St. James's, December 9.

THE following Addreſſes from the Iſlands of Barbados, Antigua, Grenada, Dominica and St. Vincent having been tranſmitted by the reſpective Governors to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

BARBADOS.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council, and General Aſſembly of this Iſland, ſtruck with Horror at the execrable Attempt made upon your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon by the Hand of an Aſſaſſin, and exulting, with the utmoſt Joy, on the providential Eſcape of your Majeſty from ſo imminent a Peril, beg your Majeſty to accept this humble Tribute of our united warmeſt Congratulation upon the happy Event, in the Preſervation of a Life of ſuch infinite Importance to all your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, and by none of them held more highly valued than by ourſelves and the Inhabitants of this ancient Britiſh Colony; who, though from its earlieſt Settlement bearing an undiſſembled Reverence to their Gracious Sovereign on the Throne, yet from the many Inſtances of your Majeſty's peculiar Grace and Favour conferred on the preſent Generation, have felt that Reverence long ago improved into the higheſt Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. Nor can we conclude this Addreſs without a fervent Prayer to that Almighty Power, by whom Kings reign, that your Majeſty may be ſtill long preſerved over a grateful Kingdom, as a laſting Bleſſing to your People, the bright Exemplar of every private as well as publick Virtue in the Royal Character, and the trueſt Friend and Guardian of what is held moſt dear by every Britiſh Subject, Civil and Religious Freedom to the remoteſt Corner of your Dominions.

We are, Moſt Gracious Sovereign, with every Sentiment of Duty and Reſpect, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and moſt affectionate Subjects and Servants,

BARBADOS.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Clergy in your ancient and loyal Colony of Barbados, firmly attached to the Eſtabliſhed Church of England, beg Leave to preſent our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the late providential Eſcape from the Attempt made againſt your Sacred Perſon.

We unite in giving our hearty Thanks to Almighty God for your Majeſty's Safety, piouſly truſting that He, by by whom Kings reign, will favourably hear the Supplications offered up by all your Subjects for the Safety, Honour and Glory of your Majesty; that your Majesty and your illustrious Family may reign over these Realms to the latest Ages; and when, full of Days, the Supreme Disposer of Events shall be pleased to take your Majesty from your Terrestrial Throne, He may bestow on you a Crown of Immortal Glory.

[Signed by 20 Persons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council and Assembly of Antigua.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and obedient Subjects, the Council and Assembly of this your Majesty's Island of Antigua, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most dutiful and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late fortunate Escape from an Attempt on your Sacred Person; an Attempt, we are sensible, that nothing but Insanity could have instigated.

Though removed to a Distance from the Seat of Government, we nevertheless feel, and gratefully do acknowledge, the Influence of your Majesty's Virtues, by which the Royal Presence is graciously extended to the remotest Parts of your Dominions.

Thus bound to our Sovereign by every Tie of Interest as well as of Allegiance, we cannot but rejoice at your Majesty's Safety, which has ever proved salutary to our own Welfare; and looking back on what has passed as an Earnest of the future, we are induced to hope, with steady Confidence, that Providence will continue to watch over the Preservation of a Monarch, who, during the whole Course of His Reign, has uniformly manifested the most merciful Regard for the Lives of His Subjects.

Edward Byam, President of His Majesty's Council pro Tempore.
John Burke, Speaker of the Assembly.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council and Assembly of the Island of Grenada and the Grenadines dependent thereon.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's most loyal and obedient Subjects, the Council and Assembly of these Islands, impressed at all Times with Sentiments of the purest Affection for your Majesty's Person, could not fail of being most sensibly alarmed on receiving Intelligence of the late unnatural Blow which had been aimed at your Royal Bosom. Permit us, Sire, to join our distant Voice with that of your faithful Subjects who are nearer to your Presence, and to request your Majesty to accept of our sincerest Congratulations on your Escape from that horrid Attempt upon a Life, in which the Happiness of Millions is involved. We should indeed regret the Depravity of Human Nature if we could believe, that the Respect and Veneration due to your Sacred Person, and the Esteem excited by the Virtues which so eminently adorn your Royal Character, were not of themselves sufficient to restrain the impious Hand from being knowingly lifted against your Majesty; but an Effort, which tended to render Millions of your Subjects miserable, ought, for the Honour of our Species, to be supposed beyond the Possibility of Intention, and only attributable to a disordered Imagination. Our Thanks are, however, not less due to that Divine Providence, which has thought fit thus graciously to interpose in the Preservation of a Life equally inestimable to your Majesty's Family, invaluable to all your Subjects, and useful as an Example to Mankind.

We beg Leave to avail ourselves of this Occasion to renew our Assurances of the most zealous Attachment to your Majesty, and our Prayers, that neither foreign nor domestic Enemies may ever disturb for a Moment your Majesty's Repose, but that you may long, very long, continue to enjoy the Satisfaction of dispensing Happiness to your Subjects in every Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

Sam. Williams, Presiding in Council.
Al. Symson, Speaker of the Assembly.

Council Chamber, Sept. 29, 1786.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council and Assembly of Dominica.

May it please your Most Excellent Majesty,

THE Council and Assembly of Dominica, amidst the general Joy of your Majesty's Subjects, at the late happy and providential Escape of your Majesty from the dangerous and unaccountable Act of Violence lately committed on your Majesty's Person, beg Leave to offer the humble Tribute of their Congratulations, and in doing so to assure your Majesty, that, in this distant Part of your Dominions, the Warmth of Loyalty and Affection for your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government is cherished with equal Zeal and Care with that which glows in the Bosoms of any of your Majesty's Subjects.

Impressed with these Sentiments, your faithful Subjects of this Colony join their Rejoicings in this fortunate Event with those of your Majesty's Kingdoms at large, hoping that the Care of Divine Providence, so lately manifested in the Preservation of your Royal Person, will continue long to guard and preserve your Majesty's Life, for the domestic Comfort of your Royal Family, and the Prosperity and Happiness of your People.

Council Chamber, Sept. 26, 1786. Alex. Stewart, President of the Council.

House of Assembly, Sept. 26, 1786. Tho. Beech, Speaker of the House of Assembly.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and others, Inhabitants of the Town of Roseau, in the Island of Dominica.

May it please your Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, the Merchants and others, Inhabitants of the Town of Roseau, in the Island of Dominica, most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that however remote this your Colony is from the Place of your Majesty's Residence, more real Loyalty and firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, cannot be found among the Subjects of any Part of your extensive Dominions.

It is with the most lively Effusions of Joy and Sincerity that we presume to offer to your Majesty our humble Congratulations, that the daring and atrocious Crime lately attempted to be perpetrated on your Majesty's Sacred Person, was rendered ineffectual.

We

We cannot however contemplate, without ſhuddering, the Danger to which your Majeſty has been expoſed, and the Afflictions we might have ſuffered for the Loſs of our moſt Gracious and much loved Sovereign, whoſe Virtues and upright Government have juſtly endeared him to all His Subjects.

With the higheſt Senſe of Gratitude for the Interference of Divine Providence, in averting a Blow which would have been ſo fatal to us all, we offer up our moſt fervent Prayers to that Providence to continue to protect and guard your Majeſty, that you may ſtill remain a Comfort to our moſt Amiable and Gracious Queen, and your Royal Family; and that you may enjoy your Health, and long and happily reign over the Perſons, as you do already in the Hearts, of your faithful People.

Roſeau, Dominica,
Sept. 26, 1786.

[Signed by 91 Perſons.]

To his Excellency John Orde, Eſq; Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over the Colony of Dominica, &c. &c. &c.

The Addreſs of the American Loyaliſts.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's loyal American Subjects, who have taken Refuge in this Colony, feeling with Gratitude the Attention of Government in the liberal Supply of Proviſions, Building Materials, and other Articles, which we have lately received, beg Leave to offer our Acknowledgments for the ſame.

It is with great Satisfaction we uſe this Opportunity of aſſuring your Excellency, that the benevolent Intentions of His Majeſty have had the fulleſt Effect in relieving the Neceſſities of ſuffering Loyaliſts ſettled in the Government under your Excellency's Command.

At the ſame Time, permit us, Sir, to expreſs how much we are indebted to your Excellency for your generous Exertions in our Favour: That attentive Care, which we have hitherto experienced, inſures us a Continuance of your Excellency's future Intereſt and Support.

The recent and providential Eſcape of our moſt Gracious Sovereign, from an Attempt made upon his invaluable Life, calls for the Congratulations of all His Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

Among the Number we join our feeble Voice; renew our Profeſſions of the warmeſt Attachment to His moſt Sacred Perſon and Family; and cheriſh an enlivened Hope, that He may long live and reign over a happy and affectionate People.

Dominica, Sept. 28, 1786.

WE, the Members of the Council of your Majeſty's Iſlands of St. Vincent, Bequia, and ſuch other of the Grenadines as lie to the Northward of Carriacou, in America, and the General Aſſembly and Repreſentatives of the People of the ſame, beg Leave reſpectfully to approach your Majeſty, and to offer their moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's moſt happy Eſcape from the horrid Attempt to aſſaſſinate your Sacred Perſon.

Impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, under our happy Conſtitution and Laws, and of your conſtant Attention to the Welfare of your Subjects in every Part of your extenſive Dominions, we humbly offer up our moſt ſincere Thankſgivings to the Divine Being, by the Interpoſition of whoſe Providence your Majeſty hath been preſerved to us; and we take this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty of our firm and ſincere Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and that we will, with the utmoſt Readineſs, embrace every Occaſion of teſtifying our Zeal for your Majeſty's Service, and the ſteady Support of your Crown and Dignity.

That your Majeſty may long reign over and in the Hearts of a free People, whoſe Glory it is to call themſelves your Subjects, is the Wiſh, and will be the conſtant Prayers of your loyal and faithful Subjects of St. Vincent and its Dependancies.
